WORK EXPERIENCE

Frontend Developer

12/2023 - Present

- While I haven't gained professional experience yet, I have built personal projects that demonstrate my skills in web development. You can check them out by clicking on my portfolio

Freelancer

04/2014 - 04/2023

Argentina - Czechia

- This period marked a turning point where I applied both my acquired skills and parallel knowledge to establish my own business in the yoga scene. I independently managed all aspects of the business, including marketing, content creation, and organizing workshops.

Administrative Employee - Commercial Area

Movistar Telefonica Argentina

01/2010 - 04/2014

Buenos Aires, Argentina

- Transitioning to an administrative role, I managed customer data processing. Due to my customer service experience, I took on additional tasks, including managing billing issues for large enterprises and collaborating across departments to resolve challenges efficiently.

Customer Service Representative

Movistar Telefonica Argentina

01/2008 - 01/2010,

Buenos Aires, Argentina

- In my first two years with the company, the role involved resolving a wide range of customer issues, from routine inquiries to challenges arising from the merger of two telecom companies. The data migration caused complications that required navigating multiple systems while providing direct support to customers, with the goal of resolving their issues in real-time.

Help Line Representative | Siniestros Department

HSBC La Buenos Aires Seguros

12/2006 - 12/2008

Buenos Aires, Argentina

- Given the emergency nature of the role, I was responsible for providing quick, effective solutions to policyholders in critical situations. That involved a swift, yet precise, process and analysis of their data to determine solutions and promptly coordinate or connect them with the necessary resources

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Veterinary Medicine

University of Buenos Aires (UBA)

02/1999 - 12/2004

Buenos Aires, Argentina

- Reached the fifth year of university coursework, opting not to complete the degree by personal choice.

Bachelor with a specialization in Accounting

No 714, Julio Cortazar

04/1992 - 12/1996

Trelew, Argentina
